2. Telephone Exchange Options

Exchange Options. Check One:

- This plan does allow plan participants and Authorized Cooperative/Employer Representatives to make fund exchanges by telephone.
- This plan does not allow plan participants and Authorized Cooperative/Employer Representatives to make fund exchanges by telephone.

If no option is elected, the account default is to not allow fund exchanges by phone.

3. Cooperative/Employer's Address

Provide the name of the plan representative to whose attention plan statements and tax forms (if applicable) should be mailed and provide your organization's residential street address. The plan representative may be a different person than the Authorized Cooperative/Employer Representative signing the application in Section 7.

4. Cooperative/Employer's Taxability and Cost Basis Election

Homestead Funds only produces tax forms for deferred compensation plan accounts of taxable cooperatives. The default is to list your organization as non-taxable and not to produce tax forms for the deferred compensation plan accounts.

If your organization is taxable and should have tax forms produced, complete the Deferred Compensation Account Maintenance Form available at homesteadfunds.com to update the organization's tax status and indicate the cost basis method elected for distributions. It is the responsibility of the cooperative/employer to notify Homestead Funds of the cooperative/employer's taxability and to provide notification of any changes to the cooperative/employer's tax status in the future.
